

RELIGIOUS
CONFERENCE
TOMORROW

SIX GREENCASTLE CHURCHES WILL TAKE PART IN SUN-DAY'S PROGRAM

YOUNG PEOPLE COMING

They Are the Most Interested in First Efforts to Unite Them In This Work

There is much interest being shown in the religious community conference which will be held tomorrow at the Presbyterian church. Up to date six churches in Greencastle have consented to unite in conference during the afternoon and young people's hour. It is hoped that all the churches in the township will join together for this study and discussion. This is the first attempt of any religious movement to unite school folk, college folk and township folk.

The conference is planned in the interest of all people from the Intermediate to the adult age, including each. This conference is also an attempt on the part of the churches to deal with life in the community. It is time that the church became the community superior in other than religious phases of life. The best way to start such a movement is to call all people together for a discussion of our needs. Our first need is religion. Religion has something to offer life that industry, politics and society do not.

The following is the proposed program, Sunday, March 23, 1924:

- First Session 2:30 to 4:00 gious Work—Prof. R. A. Ogg.

Double columned queues, eight trains to the city.

The strikers demand a wage increase of about $1.95 a week.

GEO. W. STARR
PASSES AWAY

VETERAN AT BAINBRIDGE DIED SATURDAY MORNING AT AD-VANCED AGE OF 76 YEARS

George W. Starr, age 76 years, and a veteran of the Civil War, passed away at his home in Bainbridge Saturday morning. He had been sick for the past two years, but during part of that time, was able to be up and greet his many friends down town.

Deceased was a brother of the late W. E. Starr of this city and well known throughout the county. He is survived by the widow; one son, Prof. Fred Starr, of Angola and one daughter, Mrs. Roy Eads of Bainbridge.

Mr. Starr served in the union forces during the civil war, being a member of the 18th Indiana Battery and was in several major engagements with his organization.

The funeral services will be held from the Methodist Episcopal church in Bainbridge Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial will be in the Bainbridge cemetery.

IRISH TROUBLE
INCREASING

PARTY OF BRITISH SOLDIERS ATTACKED. SEARCH IS BEING MADE

DUBLIN, March 22—Relentless search was in progress throughout Ireland today for four men who attacked a party of British soldiers on a pier at Queenstown, killing one and wounding more than a score of them.
The attackers driving a fast motor car, used a machine gun which mowed through the closely packed British troops with devastating effects. Although the assassins were dressed in the uniforms of officers of the Irish Free State army, it is denied that they were members of the government military establishment.

Free State military headquarters in Cork has issued a statement declaring the assassins undoubtedly were irregulars who have resumed their guerilla tactics following the mutiny of many army officers and troops because of the governments military reorganization program.

DEMOCRATS BUSY TALKING
POLITICS DURING THE DAY

Court House Was Well Filled with Candidates and Their Friends and All Were Busy

Saturday was the first political day for Putnam county Democrats since the last campaign. The candidates who are out, were busy circulating their literature and their friends were all busy and throughout the day, the court house lobby was filled. They were forced inside in most instances because of the weather. From now until primary time, Saturdays are expected to be quite busy days here for this class of our citizens.

WILL HAYS
ON THE STAND
IN OIL CASE

MOTION PICTURE HEAD BE-LIEVED TO HAVE RECEIVED OIL STOCK

MAY BE SENSATIONAL

Testimony By Hays Concerning Daugherty and Sinclair Is Eagerly Awaited By Committee

WASHINGTON, March 22—A new dramatic political sensation hung over the oil committee proceedings today.
As the fire of the Teapot Dome inquiry appeared to be slowly dying out, the investigators spotted a trail of political intrigue that may out-class all the rest.

Will H. Hays, "movie czar" who executed the financing of the last Republican presidential campaign is supposed to have the new story and is said to be prepared to testify when he is placed on the stand before nightfall.

Reports that Hays and Attorney General Daugherty received $75,000 shares of oil stock from Harry F.
Sinclair, before the administration leased him Teapot have been current for many days but still lack authoritation detail. This fact gave rise to speculation that this may be the sensational story that investigators have been promised.

TRIAL A WEEK OLD

INDIANAPOLIS, March 22.— As the first week of the trial of Governor McCray drew to an end here today, attorneys had been unable to select a jury which will try the governor on charges of larceny and embezzlement.

There was some prospect of finally selecting the 12 men who will try the governor before adjournment today, but so many snags have already been hit in the progress of picking the jury that no predictions were forthcoming from official circles just when the jury would be completed.

Five men who have been passed twice by both the defense and the prosecution will be members of the jury. Four more have been approved by the state once.

PASTOR JAILED FOR ARSON

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 22.— The Rev. Ulysses S. Johnson, pastor of the Waldron Baptist church, and charged with burning his church, remained in jail here today for lack of a bondsman.

The four men who had provided bond of $5,000 for Rev. Johnson, appeared in court here with him and asked to be released from the bond.
Efforts to find other bondsmen were fruitless.

The second time on the charge of arson, Rev. Johnson will face trial for arson April 21.

TIGER DEBATORS WON

The DePauw negative and affirmative debate teams on the subject: Resolved that the Federal Government should enact legislation providing for the compulsory judicial settlement of all dispute between employer and employee in the coal and railroad industries (Constitutionality being waived) won from the Indiana State Normal here and Valparaiso at Valparaiso, Friday evening.

The sweeping victory was a great tribute to the splendid teams which have well represented DePauw earlier in the season, but losing to Notre Dame. Coaches Henry B. Longden and Prof. Robert E. Williams deserve high praise for their tutelage of the two teams. The members of the teams are: Affirmative—Robert Confer, Mary Elizabeth Plummer and William McFadden; negative—Erwin Keeler, Benjamin Habberton, Robert Cushman and Dale Parkerson.

The judge for the DePauw-Indiana State Normal contest, in which the affirmative team represented DePauw here last night, was Ray K. Immel, assistant professor of Public Speaking at the University of Michigan.

OSCAR RECTOR CANDIDATE FOR CORONER'S NOMINATION

Local Well Known Undertaker is Making Race For Democratic Nomination

On Saturday Oscar J. Rector, a member of the firm of Rector Bros., Greencastle Undertakers, tossed his hat into the primary political ring for the nomination for coroner of Putnam County, subject to the primary election which will be held in May.

Mr. Rector is making his second race, he having been defeated by a narrow margin two years ago when he made his first political race. Mr.
Rector is well known in this community as well as over the entire county and his friends are glad to know he will be in the coming primary election.

IS HELD HERE

IZATION MEETING HERE

Putnam County Republican precinct committeemen and committee women held an organization meeting in the Council Chamber Saturday afternoon at which Fred Shortmeyer, former State Secretary of the Republican Committee and now a candidate

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss organization work with the ganized for the primary election that will be held in May. There was a splendid representation at the meeting. At noon, a number of Republican workers and leaders had dinner at the Crawford hotel.

Other speakers during the afternoon were Mrs. Edna Herr Bucklin, of Brazil, vice-chairman of the state committee; Mrs. Aaron Cooper of Fillmore; Ben Corwin and Mayor

Comment was very favorable concerning Mr. Johnson, who as yet is

LOCAL MEN
ATTEND BIG CELEBRATION

MARTINSVILLE HAS GREAT TIME FRIDAY NIGHT FOR BASKET BALL TEAM

WON STATE TOURNEY

And Were Highly Honored. Other Teams and Prominent Teachers Present. Coach Ashmore Spoke

It was estimated that fully five thousand people attended the big celebration and jollification held in Martinsville's new high school gymnasium Friday evening, at which time the final celebration over their state high school basketball victory was staged.

Greencastle was represented at the big meeting by Coach J. N. Ashmore and assistant Robert Gipson of De-Pauw, Paul White and James Vandenbark, the latter of Martinsville.
Coach Ashmore was one of the speakers who gave a short talk during the evening. He praised the spirit shown by Martinsville and also paid their state championship team a worthy tribute.

The celebration has been going on in some sort of fashion since last Saturday night, but it reached a climax Friday evening. It started when the team and guests, including the players from all the Morgan county teams, also players from Bloomington, Bedford, Connersville, Frankfort and other places, who had been defeated in the state tournament playing by the Champions were given a banquet at the Home Lawn Sanitarium. Through the courtesy of Messrs. Kennedy and Kriner who conduct the Home Lawn, their spacious and wonderful dining room was thrown open to the guests at five o'clock. Afterwards, the visitors were taken to the Elks Home for a social hour. In the meantime the frenzied fans had been gathering at the high school gymnasium until it was packed to the limit. The entrance of the players and their guests was a signal for a big demonstration of cheering. Then the speech making and peak of the jollification started.

Hugh Vandivier, principal of the high school, was master of ceremonies at the gymnasium. The teams were seated in a circle in the center of the floor. The other guests, including the well known coaches, were there. Naturally the applause was greatest when the champions were presented, but "you should have heard them holler" when Frankfort, Bedford and others were presented.
Very short talks were made by Coaches Page, Meanwell, Curtis and Wagner. The Indianapolis press was represented by W. F. Fox and the writer, who also is one of the home folks. There was an abundance of joy, good will and hilarity for every one. No finer finale of the basket ball season could have been staged.

Dr. Meanwell of Wisconsin spoke of the unique celebration, stating he would carry the big idea back home to his own state. Pat Page of Butler spoke of the celebrator as the peak of basketball and praised the Martinsville champions. "Griz" Wagner, noted Franklin college coach, also came through with some nice complimentary remarks about the new champions, praising Coach Glenn Curtis for the skill he displayed at the tournament.

Zora Clevenger, athletic director of Indiana University, was introduced.
He complimented the winners and spoke briefly of what the spirit displayed by them means. The celebration here tonight he characterized as unique. Similar remarks were made by James Ashmore, athletic director at DePauw university. A vaudeville program was given.

Coach Curtis said some nice things about all the teams and added that Martinsville would try to retain the championship.

In introducing Mr. Ashmore, principal Vandivier of the Martinsville High School, referred to him as a man who had done much to raise the standard of athletics in Indiana thru fostering a spirit of clean sportsmanship.

The Martinsville team went thru to victory because it was level headed and knew what to do at the proper time," Ashmore said. "It don't matter what you do before or after the game. Martinsville did their best work when it counted most."

"Indiana may not have invented basketball, but Indiana has developed it to its present standard. You could not find another such gathering as we have here tonight in any other state in the union."

PERSHING IN FRANCE

PARIS, March 21.—(UP)—Incognito, General John J. Pershing has been inspecting once again the battle fields of France, obtaining material for a book on the world war which he was writing, it was learned today.

Few knew of the presence of the American commander, an inconspicuous figure in the little towns of northern and eastern France that bore the brunt of shell fire in the war days and only now are resuming a normal appearance.

Pershing was received by Premier Poincare Friday.

LIQUOR DEAL
IS DISCLOSED

BIG WHISKEY TRANSACTION IS UNCOVERED IN DAUGHTERY
INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, March 22—Another chapter in the $200,000 liquor deal disclosed by the Daugherty investigating committee was ready for opening today. Senator Wheeler, Montana, chief prosecutor on the committee said he has at least two witnesses on hand to give further testimony on this subject. These witnesses are Col. Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney and close personal friend of Daugherty. Felder represented John Goroni, president of the Alps Drug company who related the story of the "six-way split" on the liquor deals.

Will A. Orr, once secretary to ex-Governor Whitman of New York, alleged fixer in the deal who shared $65.00 on each case of liquor withdrawn from warehouses, according to Goroni. Orr is being recalled to amplify his testimony regarding giving money in liquor deals to Howard Mannington, Daugherty's friend who lived at the "Little green house on K street."

L. O. BODELL

LOCAL JEWELER DIES SATUR-DAY MORNING AFTER SEV-ERAL WEEKS' ILLNESS

Lars O. Bodell, jeweler in this city for the past year, died Saturday morning about ten o'clock at the county hospital, where he has been suffering for the past several weeks with liver trouble.

Mr. Bodell was taken ill nine weeks ago and his condition gradually grew worse until after a consultation with Dr. Pfaff, of Indianapolis, after which he underwent an operation at the county hospital. He remained in about the same condition for several days and a second operation was performed in an attempt to save his life.
Following the second operation he grew steadily better and it was thought that he would recover, until a week ago, when he took a turn for the worse and all hopes were given up.

Mr. Bodell came to this city about a year ago when he purchased the H. S. Wencke Jewelry store on Washington street. After coming here he made many friends through his fair business dealings and friendly attitude towards the public.

Mr. Bodell was born and spent his early life in Sweden and has two brothers and two sisters in that country. He is also survived by the widow. The funeral will be held Monday. Mr. Bodell was 36 years of age and his death will be keenly felt by his business friends and acquaintances in this city.

The funeral services will be at the Presbyterian church.

NEW SCANDAL
IS UNCOVERED
IN CAPITOL

TAX REDUCTION SCHEME FOR BIG BUSINESS MEN IS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

J. F. ADAMS TESTIFIES

Former Supervisor of International Revenue Bureau is Questioned, A Investigation to Get Underway

WASHINGTON, March 22—Ex-posure and punishment of "tax sharks" and of officials responsible of favoritism to big business in tax reductions is to be sought by senate investigators as the result of startling testimony in Washington's newest scandal—the Couzens inquiry into internal revenue bureau.

Testimony was given before the committee yesterday by J. F. Adams, formerly a supervisor in the bureau.

Adams testimony was most general and he admitted when Senator Watson of Indiana, tried to pin him down that he had no specific evidence of any favoritism shown. But he insisted he knew the facts.

The testimony thus far heard in the brief hearings has already started a movement among the investigators for legislation to "let the light in" on tax procedure.

Senator King, Utah, leader of the tax publicist movement said the abuses undoubtedly sprang from secrecy of tax procedure which permitted tax sharks, former bureau employees, to use information gained in the government's employee, to bring about tax adjustments.

will be tried before Squire Newgent in the near future.

of the foundation work has been completed.

The plant will be operated by the electric power and will be one of the most modern plants of its kind in the state. The plant will not be a large one, but will be complete in every detail and will be so efficiently constructed that the capacity will be the highest possible. Messrs Bittles purchased two acres of ground adjoining their handle factory site for the location of their new industry.

tives of Dr. Zoe Wilkins found murdered here in her home, said today

"THE BLUE BOWL"

Have you a little skeleton in your closet?

If so, take care about examining too closely and too critically into the anatomy of somebody else's skeleton, and above all, be sure that the other person has a skeleton at all!

The Ransdell family are well-to-do, and have acquired the habits of many of our well-to-do. They are a bit snobbish, too, the father and mother, and when Bob brings home an attractive girl, of New York and New Orleans, they are cordial only until they find in a newspaper a reference to her father's business activities which lead them to believe that they have come upon her family skeleton—a very large skeleton that has proved too big for the proverbial closet.

So they proceed, while continuing in their own personal habits, to make things unpleasant for their guest, Elise.

Bob breaks with his father, and goes into business on his own, with the aid of Elise. Bob has always viewed his parents from the superior plane of the new generation, anyway.

Patricia, the Ransdell daughter, fresh from a year in New York, where she has learned to do the things thought proper by this same new generation, shocks her family with her slang, her pert wit, and is none too sympathetic with their prudishness about Elise.

The butler is ever-present and invaluable. He knows the weaknesses and of his employers like a book, and Theater.

gets the family out of many a tight place. Jeanette, the maid, succumbs to the vice of her mistress, and immediately understands the family.

It is a humorous comedy satirizing the foibles and weakness of an American family who have just enough money to hunt way of spending it. They talk a great deal about prohibition; at least the mother does—and she takes a tonic largely alcoholic. The father, sipping his own illicit liquor, is the first to turn on Elise when they find her father is accused of financing bootlegging on a large scale.

In the end, Elise, unjustly maligned, turns on the older people and lets them know that she understands their petty vices. They are upset at her perspicacity, and surprised at this new view of themselves as delivered from the lip of one they have been condemning.

Nobody reforms, so far as we know, but they have seen themselves in a new light, and that is the first step toward reform, although Dr. Newcomb in writing THE BLUE BOWL, has been too much the artist to inflict a moral on his audience.

The cast is as follows:
Mrs. Ransdell...Elizabeth Hughes Judson...H. L. Earnest Jeanette...Eleanor Lambert
Mr. Ransdell...Arthur J. Berault Elise Mortimer...Zenda Bertram Patricia Ransdell Irma Claire Dyles

Lesson for March 23

THE REIGN OF SOLOMON

LESSON TEXT—II Chron. 1:7-12; I Kings 11:6-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge.—Prov. 1:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Young King's Dream.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Solomon's Choice.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Solomon's Wisdom and Folly.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons From Solomon's Reign.

Here again we must go outside of the particular text assigned and make a survey of Solomon's reign.

I. Solomon Anointed King (I Kings 1:5-40).

David had heretofore failed to show the people who should be king after him (v. 20). Through the combined appeals of Bathsheba and Nathan, he is now stirred to action. He immediately sent for the faithful three, Zadok, Nathan and Beniah, and bade them to anoint Solomon king. They speedily executed their commission, and soon the people shouted, "God save King Solomon."

II. Solomon's Wise Choice (II Chron. 1:7-12).

1. God's Gracious Offer (v. 7). This offer followed Solomon's lavish sacrifice to the Lord. God said, "Ask what I shall give thee," thus placing very wide possibilities before the king. God, as it were, signed blank checks and turned them over to Solomon to fill in any amount that his heart desired. This offer to Solomon was no exceptional one, for opportunities equally limitless are placed before us. God is saying to every one of His children, "Ask, and it shall be given you." (John 15:7).

2. Solomon's Wise Choice (vv. 8-19). The Lord's gracious offer brought the king face to face with the responsibility of making his choice. Solomon did not ask for wisdom for vain display, but for the good of others. He desired inward worth, not outward show. In this choice, he asked for two particular things:

(1) That God's promise to his father, David, might be established.

(2) That wisdom would be given to him to perform his duties.

3. God's Unstinted Gift to Solomon (v. 11). Solomon's petition pleased the Lord. Because he put wisdom first God saw that he could be trusted with material goods also.

III. The Glory of Solomon's Reign.

1. His Extensive Kingdom (I Kings 4:21-25). He ruled over the kingdoms from the Euphrates river to the Mediterranean sea, except the Phoenicians, and they were in alliance with him.

2. His Great Wisdom (I Kings 4:29-34). It excelled that of the Chaldeans, Persians and Egyptians. He had a singularly comprehensive mind. He was:

(1) A moral philosopher. He spoke three thousand proverbs.

(2) A poet. His songs were one thousand five.

(3) A botanist. He spoke of trees from the cedar tree, which was in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop.

(4) A zoologist. He spoke of beasts and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

3. The Temple (I Kings 5-6). This was an exact reproduction of the tabernacle, double in size, executed in marble and gold. The amount of labor, skill and money expended on the building was exceedingly great (I Chron. 22:14-16).

4. His Royal Palaces Adjoining the Temple (I Kings 7). He was nearly twice as long in building these as in building the Lord's house.

5. His Commerce (I Kings 9:26-28). Compare II Chron. 9 and 10:21. His trading ships went east as far as the Indian ocean, perhaps even to India; and west as far as Spain.

6. His Army and Navy (I Kings 10:26-29). This was for more than display. He put his nation into a state of preparedness.

This greatness was associated with the name of the Lord. It was known that his fame was due to his relation with the living God.

IV. Solomon's Failure (I Kings 11:6-12).

Because Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, the Lord was angry with him and assured him that the kingdom would be rent from him and given to his servant. However, for the sake of David, he would not bring this humiliation upon Solomon while he lived. Solomon's chief offenses were alliances with foreign powers through marrying kings' daughters. This compromise weakened his moral nature and he soon followed his wives in the worship of false gods.

Don't forget the W. S. G. A. "chrysus" tonight in the Bowman Memorial Gymnasium. It will be worth many times the price of admission to the interesting side shows and feature entertainments. Come early and have your pockets filled with ball moose nickels and bright shining dimes.

DePauw will have its first Gridiron banquet this year. Members of Sigma Delta Chi have been planning for some time the mysterious dinner which will be held the latter part of April. The present plan is the result of an intensive study of the methods employed at the large institutions of the country.

To "rate" a plate at the annual gridiron "roast" at such schools as Illinois, Minnesota, Ohio State, Michigan, Iowa, Purdue, Indiana, Wisconsin, etc. is considered one of the highest social honors that can be conferred on a man during the school year. Not only students but faculty members, townspeople and state celebrities share the honor. Only a limited number of invitations are sent out, which makes the affair highly exclusive, so that only the most distinguished members of the Student Body are selected for the honor of attending.

No "off" days

Hot Spot Gasoline is a straight run, unblended, undiluted motor fuel—and is ALWAYS the same.

It has the advantage of coming from but one source. Hot Spot is a certain kind of gasoline, having certain superior qualities, and coming always from a certain source.

If you "try a shot of Hot Spot" today and find that it gives you increased performance in pep, power and mileage, you may know that it will always do just that.

Hot Spot has no "off" days—no bad runs. Its quality is always the same—always good!

YESTERDAY AND TODAY

Ancient history and literature furnished the topics of interest to a group of two dozen women assembled in the hospitable home of Mrs. Oscar Thomas, at the March meeting of the Woman's Bible Class of College Ave. M. E. Sunday School on Friday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Jennie Jennings, being in the chair.

On the literary programme, the subject under consideration was "David—Poet, King and Prophet." Miss Laura C. Sheridan gave an original treatment of it in a carefully prepared, instructive and attractive paper, portraying the four periods of the life of this outstanding personality.

In considering David as Prophet, emphasis was laid on his Messianic Psalms, and especially on the 22nd Psalm, which contains "a graphic picture of death by crucifixion," in at least five particulars. Crucifixion being a Roman and not a Jewish form of execution, and herein described before the Roman nation came into existence, furnishes an irresistible proof that David was inspired while writing this Psalm, which also contains one of the very utterances of the Christ on the Cross, and a description of certain circumstances attending his Crucifixion, which were literally fulfilled about one thousand years later.

Miss Mary Denny ably led the discussion, following the paper, emphasizing David's Poetic gift and as interpreted by Browning in his "Saul."

During the Social hour our hostess served delicious ice cream, cakes and coffee, and the guests departed with appreciation of her contribution to the promotion of interest in Bible study and with a deepened appreciation of David, the faithful shepherd boy, marvelous musician, brave warrior, tender friend, mighty king, Poet hymn writer and inspired Prophet, who through almost three thousand years has been giving humanity a God-ward lift and who lives today.

INDIANAPOLIS LIVESTOCK

INDIANAPOLIS, March 22—Despite a decided decrease in receipts, hog prices dropped a dime here today as the result of a lack of shipping orders. This left the market largely in the hands of local packers. Receipts were 5,500.

All weights of good hogs brought $7.75. One load of fancy 275 pound hogs brought the top of $7.80. The feature of the market was the steadiness in pigs at $7.50 down. Sows reflected the general decrease, selling weak to 25 cents lower at $6.50.

Cattle trading was unusually dull, with only 100 head in the pens. Prices were nominally steady. Stock of the good and prime class closed the week 15 to 25 cents higher, while the common medium grades held steady to 15 cents higher.

Weakness was felt in the calf market, though fancies commanded Friday's top of $12.50, while the bulk brought $11.50 to $12. Receipts were 150.

Sheep and lamb prices were unchanged at $16.60 down for lambs and $9.50 down for sheep. Receipts were 50.
